“Libby Weingarden was such a gracious and kind woman with her loving smile and welcoming voice. Many years ago I went out doing campaign work for one of our politicians and came to the Weingarden home and the door swung open and there was Libby with a big smile. Being a very hot day and I walking in that horrible heat Libby invited me in to her air conditioned home for some ice tea. How kind and generous of her. Libby and George were very good friends of my mother and father Bunny and Jerry Kelman. May her neshama have an Aliyah and her family be comforted among the Mourners of Israel.

What a wonderful, loving, kind LADY. I have always looked up to Libby as a role model.

May she rest in peace.

One of Libbys outstanding qualities was her ability to connect with people from different walks of life. She was a friend to all and had a ready smile for all. She will be sorely missed.
