“ I cannot believe our dear friend is gone. We shared a lot of time and laughs together. We remember when she first came to the country and spoke so little English. Then we remember wishing we could go back to that time because she became so proliferant! Luda was a one-woman powerhouse. I hope someone is pampering you now Luda, You certainly deserve it!

“ Please accept our sincere condolences on your loss. It's so hard to accept that Ludochka is gone... so many fond memories stemming from early 1970 in Riga and Jurmala. Gone, but not forgotten.
Sincerely,
Emma & David Tsimerman, Toronto, Canada
