“ Mrs Magda Weiss was a very thoughtful and kind woman. As I recall my childhood and growing up with her precious boys Tommy & Ricky, she would refer to them as My Tommy and My Ricky, holding them so precious. She truly was a Aseth Chayil who looked after her husband Fred and her boys. She held us the Kelman's dear as well, always asking me about how I was doing when we met. I remember when Rabbi Ricky received the news that he was chosen to be the Rabbi of Young Israel of Hillcrest. I called and gave her Mazel Tov. She was so proud and grateful of my phone call and always told me Sammy how good a friend I was. May her Neshama rest in peace and have the Nachas from her children grandchildren and great grand children. May the entire family be comforted amount the mourners of Israel.
