My parents, Emery and Clara Gray, became friends with Magda in post-war Germany. The photo was taken in Zennern, Germany in 1948 or so. Magda and Marcel were dear friends of my parents until their deaths in 1987 and 2001. Peter Gray, Ann Arbor, 2023.

“ *Mark & Michael, & Family,
I wanted to tell you that I watched your Mom's funeral. What an honor, to have had my family's name mentioned, & my aunt & uncle, & cousin. I feel honored. Your mom was an amazing woman Magdalene/ Maggie!! Wonderful stories! Wonderful memories! Thank you so much for sharing. May your Mom's memory always continue to be a blessing!! Sending my deepest sympathy. Condolences, prayers, & love.*

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Magda . I listened to the service and was honored to hear the names of my parents mentioned as well as the Kahn's. She outlived all the Hungarian survivors . I will always remember Marcel and Magda as she was called . My sincere condolences to the family. May she rest in peace and her memory be a blessing. Nancy Besser

“ Maytal was her Hebrew name. We were in the same Hebrew class for decades. She was a much-loved lady, sharp and funny. My hope is that she will connect with her murdered relatives and husband. What a loss! Rest in Peace, Maytal. Love, Hannah Klein

“ Maggie and I became friends in our weekly Thursday conversational Hebrew class. She spent several years at our home with our family for Passover Seders. We always enjoyed her company. She was truly a very special woman. I hope all of you have warm memories of an incredible mother and grandmother and that these memories will continue to be a blessing for all of you.
