“ I used to sit in schul behind the girls and i was always so impressed that they came to schul each week, beautifully dressed and davened so nicely. I thought to myself that their mother was doing a good job.

“ My whole family would love it when the Daiches gang would come to Dallas in the summer with all their kids and with a sibling or two of Chaya’s. My kids so enjoyed spending time with Mrs. Daiches and all the kids during the shabbosos that she spent here, while spending the week with the in-laws in Fort Worth. A few of my kids bumped into one of the boys in New York and fondly reminisced about the old days.

I also remember when they were living on Harvest Hill, and I wasn’t feeling well and Mr. Daiches’s rebbe came to town and did the water thing and how I was pretty spooked out and Chaya calmed me down.

Everytime I went into that apartment, I couldn’t get over how clean and meticulous it was! She was so good at keeping a clean orderly house. When they were trying to sell their town house her real estate person put a sign on the house saying ‘I’m gorgeous inside.’ And we all knew that that was really true!

I knew she had many struggles but I was really impressed how hard she tried and how many talents she had. BD”E.
