“ I will really miss Marc. We've shared a lot together. This picture is shortly after he got sick last October. I thought I knew a lot about Music but he introduce me to people in the local music scene and he became good friends with many. Everyone loved him. He loved watching music documentaries, which we did on most Friday nights. He was definitely one of a kind.

“ I formally met Marc when he was working at MicroCenter. We had seen each other around for years at local music. After our MicroCenter connection, when we saw each other at shows, it was always a kind exchange. Sometimes we would talk for a while. He was quite plugged in and had great stories on the bands of our collective past We had a lot in common, in being Jewish dudes that had the culture with definite deviation. I saw a great pic on FB from his HS days at Oak Park Man, like many of us, Marc sported the Jewfro in its finest.

My thoughts remain with your dear Harriett and all of those that loved you Sleep in the Stars and say hey to Jerry . . .

I always enjoyed interacting with Marc. For many years he was part of a group of guys who played basketball on Monday night at a local elementary school. While competitive it was a lot of fun. May his memory be a blessing forever!

I am sorry to hear this. Mark was a cool guy. I used to work with him at World Wide Financial in 1994-1995. We went for sushi a few times at Noble Fish. My condolences to the family.
