“ Thinking of my friend Robin and her family. Knowing her father is no longer in pain but also knowing that he got to meet Aiden and spend time with him which became his greatest joy in only a way a grandfather knows. This moment in time is a difficult one, in years to come there will still be moments of fierce reminders of memories made or new holidays missed with Mark and those will be hard to ride passed but he left his legacy in his children and grandchildren and they will keep his light burning.

“ Hold close to Mark's generous spirit during these trying days. Know his love lives through all his friends and family. He will be missed and our hearts are broken for your pain and loss. Love, The Hennellys

“ Each person is given the gift of time to live,
to learn, to love, and to leave a legacy.
Linda, I hope you can take comfort in knowing that Mark made a true difference to others.
May your precious memories live forever in your heart.

With deepest sympathy and the hope that, in time, warm memories of all you and Mark shared will bring you comfort and peace.

With deepest sympathy to you and your family,

Love and Hugs, Temmie

Linda: Know his pain has ended is a blessing. Watching your devotion and attentiveness to his needs was something to behold. My deepest

I had the pleasure of knowing Marc/Moshe for a few years now and of being his Chaplain in the hospital. He was a kind soul. May his memory be a blessing.
