I'm so grateful for remote access/participation in my Aunt Marian's service. So--I could crying with my Uncle Lou, see my cousin Shelley nodding her head in agreement with all that was said, hear Eleanor's talk and the songs which my aunt also sang to me, and hear her granddaughters' comments read aloud. And when the curtain was opened to show her coffin, it was the most painful moment. I'm shaking my head with sadness. (Elaine Messer Hyman, Cherry Hill, NJ)

I am the daughter of one of my Aunt Marian's older sisters. My mother referred to Marian as "my kid sister." And so she was my babysitter, 20 years old when I was born. I was at her wedding in the old Beth Abraham with the balcony for the women on Linwood where my Zada (her father) was the Shamas. My Buba and Zada's youngest child was Sweet Marian, love always.

I used to love seeing Mrs. Guttman at Beth Ahm on Shabbat mornings and on holidays, and have missed her a lot since she became unable to attend on a regular basis. The last time I saw her was at Meer about a year ago. She waved to me as I came into view and gave me that big warm smile. Zichrona livracha, may her memory be a blessing always.
