“ Martin will always be missed for he was a kind and giving soul ... He loved his children and his family and friends with all his heart. Anyone that had the pleasure to know him couldn't not “like the guy” I was always told. . It has been 4 years ago tomorrow and Martin is still missed...

“ I was deeply saddened when notified about Martin's departure. Even though I haven't seen Martin in since I moved to Texas decades ago, he always had a special place in my life. We shared many fun times and adventures in our days in Yeshiva. Martin possessed amazing enthusiasm and his love of life was one-of-a-kind. He was always authentic in his words and actions and full of good humor. He will be missed dearly. May his memory be a blessing. Our hearts are with you.

“ Martin has been a part of our lives as long as I can remember. From when I hung out with the Yeshivah guys as the little sister to when Martin reconnected me to Gary and I was able to see him all the time at the Pawn shop. He called every Mothers day and Valentines and birthday . Always having positive and supportive words if I needed a little guidance. Hal and Josh , you just know for sure that your dad had a big impact on many people he touched us all in a kind and wonderful way. Mindy Krigel Bricker

“ To all the Weberman family. This really sucks, ok I said it. Phil, Abe, Hal, and Josh. I knew Martin for a very long and fun time, It was always fun. Our time was Yeshivah and after time, And what a lot of fun the three of us had, Baumer, Martin and me.

We did everything together, sex, drugs, and rock and roll. And that is how it was meant to be.

Martin would not want any sad faces. He would want us all to enjoy the life we are given, be kind to one another, and not to get stuck on the small things. This is the Martin I will remember.

And his character, NATMAN. This is one he made up and we had such a good time when he played it.

He is a wonderful friend and a good soul. Think of him and smile, Really that's all we can do to honor him. Love you, my friend. See you again

The last thing he did was start putting .18 cents for my recovery in a pushka every day. I will give Sedaka in your honor that Hasham will reunite you with your love Kim and Mom and Dad, Hope they are serving Cholent up there.

Peace and Love, Ricky, Reuven , Krigel

Until we meet again, Shalom

“ Hal, Josh, and Karen - I am so very sorry for your loss. Martin was such a fixture of my childhood and I always loved spending time with your family. I remember us all taking a motor home up to Sequoia National Park, goofing around down in Pacific Beach, and being trusted by Martin and Karen to babysit for Hal and Josh. (I couldn't have been a day over 12!) My thoughts are with you at this difficult time.

“ Martin- you are already so missed. I'm so happy to have come to know you through my sister Karen - loved our holiday dinners we shared. I wish I had taken more pictures but being present in the moments gave us all great joy and conversations. May your memory be a blessing, as you already were to our family
