“ A brief note from Carol Gale and Julie Borim about the message we posted below: the name of our mother, Olga B. Krause, was inadvertently omitted on the message we left. Our mother was very fond of Marvin and valued his friendship for decades.

“ Marivn was a treasured friend of our mother, of blessed memory, and he became our friend as well. We shall always remember him for his integrity and grateful for the sound advice he offered. We shall also remember his contagious laughter. May Marvin's memory be a blessing.

“ My condolences to the family

Marvin and I had a long ongoing personal and business relationship for many years. Came to be involved with Marvin when his practice was located with the Congress Lawyers Group in 1981. We had many philosophical discussions over religion, politics, travel and Jewish life in general. We occasionally agreed on issues and we did have great dialogues over the years. He will be greatly missed.

“ I was sadden to hear of Marv's passing. I knew him for over 50 years and was his legal secretary for 17 of them, I will always remember a warm and caring wonderful friend. My love and deepest sympathy to his nieces and nephew.

Hi Ms. Ariff, I may have already sent this, can't tell, but thank you for your comment--I never met any legal secretary of Marvin and was very interested in your comment. It would be interesting to know what his day to day worklife with you was like. If you care to, you can contact me via email: lauren.hallinan@yahoo.com

“Carl and I were friends with Marv for over 30 years... Carl remembers taking his precious cargo (dogs and cat) back and forth from Michigan... We adopted his last dog Cora who we loved almost as much as we did Marvin... 🌸❤️🌸
