“ It was with great sadness to hear of Mary's recent passing. My wife and I were in Spain until late last night or would have paid our respects to the family sooner. Our families go back at least 50 to 60 years ago and can only remember fond recollections of the past with Mary, Yashula, Jacob, Mordy, Allan and Heidi growing up as members of the Sephardic community of metro Detroit. My mother, who just also recently past in January, were both selflessly devoted to the growth , nurturing and well being of their respective children. With love Robert , Cathy Sevy and our entire Sevy familiy living out of state.
