“ Dear Sara, I just found about Max in today's Jewish News. I feel very saddened that I was unable to honor Max at the funeral. Myrtle and I wish you and your family our sincere condolences. As you know Max and I were teachers together at Cody High for 10 years. We were also founders along with Allen Warson of the Jewish Historical society. Max was a great teacher and friend. I will miss the many memories I have of our years together. Please forgive me for my absence at the funeral. Richard Leland

“ Dear Mrs. Nadis, Daniel, Deborah, and Ronn, I was saddened to learn of the loss of Mr. Nadis (as I knew him). Of course, he earned his doctorate! I always felt sure that Mr. Nadis could, and would, do anything that required determination and intelligence. I have so many fond memories of the 10 years we were next-door neighbors on Plainview. Playing in each other's houses and yards, walking to and from that wonderful school, Pitcher, sharing holidays and birthdays, celebrating holidays - thank you, for including us in Seders and bar and bat mitzvahs.

Mr. Nadis was such a good man. Our whole family is grateful for his presence on this earth and mourns his loss with you.

With so much affection,

“ Even though I physically could not be with you, know that I am with all of you as you love, laugh, cry, celebrate and mourn together. The funeral service was a fitting and beautiful to beloved Maxwell. Sometimes technology really is a wonderful thing. I send the warmest of prolonged hugs and the fullest of hearts to share with you, love, cousin michelle (aka mishmosh)

“ Max played an important roll my becoming a Zionist and a more devote Jewish man. He was a great teacher at Temple Beth El, and wonderful leader at Camp Tamarack. I have nothing but fond memories of Max and Sara.

Dear Nadis family:

Jerry and I were sad to hear the news of Maxwell's passing. You will always be in our hearts. We are so thankful to you and the entire family. We credit you with the life we have today and the 3 beautiful children that we have! Thank you for making the long trip over 20 years ago to attend our wedding in New Orleans. May his memory be a blessing.
