“ I knew Megan from high school, her kind nature and optimism were such a contribution to this world. Megan was so appreciated for her friendship, happiness, sunshine and enthusiasm. Our thoughts prayers are with her family. Jensen DeOrlow, Carlsbad, California.

“ Thank you for posting Megan’s funeral. Megan was a student of mine (my last name was Fugit then, not Griffin) when she was in 8th grade at Walled Lake Middle, now Geisler Middle. She and my daughter, Sarah, were friends and the same age and in classes together. Please pass on my deepest sympathies to her family as they begin their grief journey. Life is precious and fragile. Megan lived hers well and now is resting in the arms of God, waiting for our time when we are all called Home. God bless. Lois C. Griffin

“Megan is a true beam of light, love, and positivity! I met her at a brunch with mutual friends and immediately stored her in my phone as "Megan Bestie." The rest is history. Over the past 7 years, she was always up for talking dating, shopping, going out to eat, morning flower sales in Royal Oak, taking a last minute gnocchi cooking class with me where she allegedly cracked her first egg, and getting my glasses out of the 90s! She was honest, sometimes blunt (telling me, "girl, our next shopping trip is to pick out new glasses and get your frames into the current decade!"), but always flooded that honesty with caring, support, and full of love! When my mom passed away, she hit me with truths that I was trying to avoid and got me out of my isolation and grief. Megan, you have left marks on all of us and will continue to guide and support us from the glorious place you now are. Your graveside service today was beautiful and full of so many that loved you. I felt your presence in the sunshine and breeze. Thank you for all that you've taught me about strength, compassion, and friendship! All my love and support go to her family and numerous other friends and besties! I love you dearly my bestie... until we meet again! <3

“ Dear Zanita and Family - over the years when our kids were young we shared such beautiful and fun memories with you and your kids and going out with you and Sandy a blessed memory. Megan was so sweet and so loving - my heart breaks for all you have gone through. She fought the fight with family right next to her and now may she be at peace. Too young to have endured all she did - but may all your beautiful memories as a family give you strength to get through this horrible loss. My thoughts are with you. Roslyn Mendelson
