“ I spent many happy days with Melvyn along with other pupils at Wellesley nautical school in Blyth England he would take us on expeditions mountaineering fell walking and canoeing in the Cheviot hills and the lake District iShare this memory belatedly because I have only recently learnt of his passing to his family I can only say this he was. A very decent man who possessed great humanity for his fellow man and cared deeply for the boys who were entrusted to his care and he always did his best for them he was my house master at Wellesley in 1963. 1964 and I will always remember him Alex Owen ex Wellesley boy
