“ Michael was my cousin. He always had a laugh, or a joke to make someone laugh. He was kind and helped my Mother, in an ice storm get my Dad, his uncle, to the airport, to fly for medical attention. As children we always had great family gatherings, and I can still hear his laughter. You will be missed, by many. Roz Surowitz-Whyman.

“ *Dear friends and family,
I was like a third child in the Surowitz family in Detroit. I was one of the few non family members who Mugsey didn't bite. I was also one of Mikes friends who didn't hit on Lanie.
I feel badly that distance keeps Ellen and I from saying a proper goodbye.
Love and regards to Marlene and family.*

“ Michael,

We shared a lot of time together in our early years. Being only a few years older than me and living a block away in Pontiac, until your parents and Lainey moved to Detroit in the 1950's, we enjoyed building things together and I hold a dear place in my heart for you. When you lived in Pontiac, our parents (the 4 brothers) worked together and our families spent a lot of time together. We were all so very close and family was everything.

May the Lord open his arms to you Michael and give you a place of honor in eternity. And Michael, in God's timing, it won't be long before we all gather together to reunite in God's glorious kingdom.

May you rest in peace dear cousin,

Ron Surowitz on behalf of the family of George and Sylvia Surowitz
