“ I met Mikey, along with my good friend Arnie Braver, as I was doing my residency at Borman Hall in 1983-1984. We were three single guys enjoying the nightlife along with going to Tiger games at Tiger Stadium. Just three "wild and crazy guys" who had no idea what we were doing but truly enjoyed hanging out together.

After I finished my residency in Detroit, Mikey visited me in New Jersey and I will never forget taking him to Atlantic City along with my mother. Mikey was playing blackjack and had no idea what he was doing, yet he would pull cards and win every hand. The more advice we were trying to give him, the more stubborn he became. Nevertheless, he won and left a very happy man.

I will miss Mikey very much and I will never forget my friend. And I truly believe he now will be at peace.
