“ I have met Mike in 1992 when seemingly short time ago he arrived from Ukraine/Russia. I was building a house and he did anything and everything on my construction. I learned that he was highly talented engineer that authored many technical books, including power generation. He had exceptional work ethics and everything he did was with an attitude "can do " and "how to do it better than asked" . Over the years we became friends, Mike helped me on the <20210426143833692.pdf> campaign for George W. Bush in 2004, while I ran "Jews for George campaign. " in Michigan. He also was dedicated to preserving heroism of Jewish WW2 veterans, in this case I helped him and his comrades, later they have given me a medal which I still cherish in my collection. Mike and I attempted to do businesses in Ukraine, he always was resourceful and creative. He also was a Zionist with capital "Z" in many discussions we had. Mike was a real friend, he always was speaking proudly of his family. My condolences to the family! Alex Goldis
