“ We lost track a while back. I decided to search to see if she was alive. I'm sad to see she passed. We met in Weight Watchers. I witnessed her Bat Mitzva. I bought her a special Menorah when she had her Bat Mitzva. When I lost a lot of weight she sang Wind Beneath My Wings to me at Weight Watchers. I visited her temple and she visited my church. When my husband died she asked her rabbi to do his funeral. My husband was jewish. While he accepted Jesus Christ as Messiah we planned a jewish funeral and burial out of respect for his family. My husband and I had planned a trip to California. When he died I took Milly with me and we had a grand time. I do have fond memories of Milly and miss her.

“ Milly was dearly loved by her family and friends. She and her sister, Adrienne, were especially close. Adrienne looked after her magnificently and lovingly when she was not well the last few years and we are all very grateful to her for that. No one could have done more for Milly.

Milly had some wonderful triumphs in her life. With great persistence, she earned an Associates Degree and became Bat Mitzvah at an adult age. She was extremely proud of these achievements and we applauded her for them.

We will miss her greatly.

In the almost 60 years that I knew your sister I never knew her to share a mean or unkind word. She had a wonderful outlook and her memory be a blessing.
