“ You did not grow up with a mother or family, so you became a mom to everyone and made all of us your family.
You did not grow up surrounded by love but you became a person who was loved by all.
You never knew safety but sitting with you in your kitchen, as a teenager, was one of the safest places I could be.
What you didn't have as a child, you offered to everyone you met. You opened your home and heart to make people feel important.
Mrs. Biegun, I feel honored and fortunate to have been sincerely cared for by and known you for most of my life. Like your granddaughter, Rachel, says "you are a real life hero"
With love, Wendy
