“ The women at Coville loved her! She was always kind and welcoming! When my mom moved into Coville, Miriam reassured me that she and the other ladies would take good care of her, and they did!

May her memory be for a blessing.

“ When looking up the Hebrew words (or their English translations) "achdut," "achava," or "chesed," [אחדות – Unity and אהבה – fraternity, and – רחמים kindness to each other], the two-word dictionary definition for each is "Miriam Falcon."

Miriam, z"l, impacted everyone she met.

Farewell, my sister.

“ She lit up any room she walked into. I did not know her very long, but she made an impact on the people around her. She was always an asset to any conversation because of the way she saw the world. She loved talking about theater and the shows she was going to see. Her light may have faded, but she will always shine in our hearts. We are going to miss her very much. My thoughts are with her family and her multitude of friends.

“ Miriam was always smiling & friendly to everyone. When I came to visit before I moved here, she made sure to say hello & introduce herself. She was always at shiur with Rabbi Cohen & later with Rabbi Katz. You could count on her to be in shul & helping out in the kitchen always.
