MIRIAM AND JACK SHENKMAN were a very special part of our Kishel family. My father worked for City Service Insulation for many years. I enjoyed your Mother's guidance and support.

We always enjoyed the holiday turkeys provided by your family. Sorry your loss. Pamela Kishel Tront “ Aishes chayil mi yimtzah... Miriam was that traditional Aishes Chayil. A woman of regal bearing, yet, she mingled with her neighbors at the Fleischman Residence without the slightest aire of anything to set her apart from them. She was first and foremost a mensch amidst her peers. So much can be said of Miriam and Jack's charitable activities, but those were matched by their sense of humility, and their desire to avoid public accolades. They shared a beautiful life together in our mortal world, and now are joined for eternity in the Olam haEmes. May their lives and deeds serve aa a blessing for the families that they created and for all of the people whom they touched.

May their family members be consoled by Hashem amongst the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.
