“ I played golf for several years with John at Tanglewood. He was such a sweet man.
I just found out about his passing and I will always have fond memories of him. He would bring fruit to the golf course and I always enjoyed playing golf with him.
My condolences to the family.

“ Met johnny at congregation Beth Ahm. He told me he was a friend of my husband George; that they worked together and both survivors. Shul friends referred to him as Morris. I asked him why since I knew him as johnny. He explained to me that as a salesman it was better to be called john rather than Morris. Survivor lesson....adapt
