“ Remembering Morris with love and thanks for many years of friendship and especially for his never-failing kindness and support to me over many years. Rest in peace Morris, may the sun warm your soul and may God enfold you in the mantle of His love. Maureen (Rene to you).

“ I got to know Morris and Ann through my friend Peggy Marine who had known them for years. The first time I met Morris was when Peggy invited me to go along for a day on the river in their boat. I remember thinking he has a strange sense of humor but he made me feel very welcome (even though I had some sea sickness) and we shared a lot of laughs. Over the years I have been invited to their home and was also in attendance for Morris's 70 birthday party. It was great to see all of them again and to share in the love the family had for each other. I'll keep the memories of all these times close to my heart. It's so sad that he is gone. Ann, may all your memories sustain you during your grief. Love and blessings to you all.

“ A lovely man who was introduced into my life via his children, Kim & Jennifer. Obviously, I knew of him through his wife Ann, however, got to really know Morris when I moved to Canada. A really funny man and gentleman with an abundance of love in his heart for his family, I will miss his email jokes, I will just miss him period! So very sad that a great man has left. My deepest sympathies to all of you, I wish I had spent more time in Michigan with you all.

God bless,

“ Morris was my neighbor for 7 years and my parents for 19 years . Morris was always their for everyone he never said no to request . I am a better person having Morris in my life. He would shovel other people walks and driveways with a snow blower that had head lights on it. I always knew I could count on Morris . If anything was wrong in my house he would try to help. Well god you have a great mensch now . Scott Paul
