Baruch Dayan HaEmet.

Dear Adam Josh Jeremy Seth Rachel and Elizabeth.

I was beyond saddened to hear of your mother (a"n), who returned her soul on, 19 Elul 5785. In Parashat Ki Tavo we read, "V'samachta b'chol hatov..." rejoice in all the good and share it with others. That was your mother: a present mother of her children and grandchildren, a loving sister to Sandy, whose words lifted people and whose home overflowed with hachnasat orchim, good food, generous heart, and a laugh that filled the room. In Elul, when "the King is in the field," we draw close through love and kindness, she lived that closeness every day with her bright curls, radiant smile, and joyful presence.

Hamakom yenachem etchem betoch she'ar avelei Tzion v'Yerushalayim; tehei nishmata tzerurah b'tzror hachayim. Amen Amen

This was a beautiful service for a truly beautiful woman. We loved Micki from the very first time we met her, when my sister Tisha married my wonderful brother-in-law, Josh.

Micki was the epitome of the Proverbs 31 woman — full of grace, strength, and love. The way she poured love into her family and into everyone around her was inspiring.

We are sending love and prayers to all who loved her.

Dearest Adam, my heart is with you and all the family.

I'm sending Micki all my love for her journey. Such an amazing woman, I am grateful for her presence in our lives.

We cannot thank her enough for her warmth, kindness, and love when Alex, my brother, died.

RIP my dear Micki 💕✨🙏 I love you beyond the stars.

“ *Dear Muriel's family:
I grew up with Muriel as my dear friend in Detroit. We shared many sleepovers in her house and mine, and I remember her mother and sisters so well. I still can picture the kitchen table where we all had meals together in the years of elementary school. Such good memories. My heart go out to you.

“ Dr. Micki Berg was one of the outstanding women in the 1960 class of Mumford high school... She was committed, supportive, compassionate, brilliant, kind, loyal, great sense of humor, and an all-around exceptional person. I personally worked with her for 60 years on the Mumford high school reunion and she was there with unending commitment... She will be missed very much by those friends of hers and of course family who love her with all our hearts
