“ We are saddened to hear of loss of Myer Mandelbaum, our condolences to his wonderful family. I only had the pleasure of getting to know him the past 12 years when he came as a guest at our hotel each winter. My understanding is he had been coming each winter for many years prior to this but our records only go back 20 years. In the afternoons he liked to sit in our lobby and I would often leave my desk and come out to chat with him about his life. He had so many great stories about how he met and courted his wife, as well as his careers in watches and construction/building. His memory was sharp as a tack and full of funny anecdotes.

Our entire staff will miss him as well as many of our repeat guests who liked to chat with him at the pool and breakfast room. Several of our staff had had guests ask "Is that nice man who stays in the room by the pool coming back" He was so well thought of.

Thank you Myer for so many great memories. Your kindness, patience and gentle nature leave behind a fine example and wonderful impression on myself as well as many others here in California. Go in Peace!

“ As a neighbor for the past 30+ years, I grew to know Myer and Alice. What wonderful people. One of my favorite memories of Myer was his bicycle repair and give away activity. He would bring home bits and pieces of broken bikes and somehow make working usable bikes out of it all. After he accumulated several of them, he would just started giving them away to any kid that wanted one. It was so fun watching him talk to the kids and getting a bike that fit them. Whenever he was outside if one of the kids stopped with a bike " issue", Myer always stopped what he was doing an fixed it. What a great legacy he left on so many levels. Myer, you lived a good life and you will be missed.

“ Our condolences to the entire Mandelbaum family. We will always remember Meyer and his love of all the young children.,He would sing and entertain them when ever we saw him. His devotion to his cousin Ethel was wonderful. She always talked about their Thursday phone conversations., He will be sorely missed.
