“ I had the pleasure of knowing Nancy and Bill while I worked at Maple Manor. They were wonderful people, both separately and together. The care Nancy took of her husband was inspirational. She always believed in putting others first and will be remembered as a kind and beautiful soul. My deepest condolences to the Braun family at this difficult time. May you find peace and comfort in the fact that the suffering is over, and Nancy and Bill are together again.

“ While Bill and I were in Maple Manor, Nancy and my wife, Barbara, arranged to have Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippor dinners there. Both women did the cooking and Nancy did the arrangements with Maple Manor. Both families got together for very nice celebrations. Nancy will always be remembered as a wonderful and caring person. .

Nancy and I have been friends since the kids were little. My husband Steve and her husband Bill also were friends. It so happened that Bill and Steve were in the hospital and at Maple Manor at the same time. They spent many hours together as Nancy and I tried to take care of them. It was with great sadness I said goodbye to her today. I'll never forget her and her beautiful family. I'll miss you my friend.
