“ Nancy went on a shopping spree at Nordstroms and surprised me in my 11th gd year with a whole new wardrobe! This was natural for her and she so enjoyed making others happy. She will be missed as a kind and generous spirit. May her memory be a blessing.

“ I had a chance meet with Nancy at Marshall's when she was looking at a heart pillow to use after her surgery. I told her my fiancé used a pillow after his heart surgery. I wished her well. Afterwards I was sorry I didnt give her my contact info so I posted on "Next Door" that I would like to contact the lady purchasing the heart pillow and low and behold she saw that and e mailed each other. We were to keep in touch and get together when she was able. I was so sorry to hear of her passing After watching her funeral I realized how much we would have in common. I am an Interior Designer. Just a chance meeting will stay in my heart forever.

“ The Rebbe of the Warsaw Ghetto, R'Kalonymous Kalman Shapira, taught,
"The greatest thing in the world is to do someone else a favor. If you want to bless G-d, do someone a favor." Nancy excelled in doing favors for people. She exemplified being generous and compassionate. May her memory be for blessing always.

So grateful to have known Nancy. She spent several Easter and Christmas holidays at our home with our family in Dallas. She would bake enough goodies for an entire village to contribute to our large gatherings. I met her at the Atlanta market when she was selling stuffed animals at the time. She was always so kind to my children and entire family. She was a mother at heart and always loving and giving. One holiday she invited our family to her home to show and teach us about Jewish traditions. We will always be grateful. Rest in peace my friend. Your life was too short. With love from the Howe's.
