Natalie Epstein, age 92, of West Bloomfield, passed peacefully on January 25, 2024.

Beloved wife of the late Merel Epstein.

Loving mother-in-law to Claire Epstein who was Natalie's caregiver for many years.

Proud Mother of the late Allan (Claire) Epstein, late Ronald Epstein, and David (Valerie) Epstein.

Very devoted and the best loving Grand Ma of Aaron (Kristina) Epstein, C. J.

Epstein, and Chad (Melanie Jaramillo) Epstein.

Amazing Little Great Grand Ma of Elizabeth Epstein, Alana Epstein, and Allan Michael Epstein.

Loving daughter of the late Hyman (late Bella) and the late Anna Lipsitz.

Dearest Sister of the late Harold (Joyce) Lipsitz and Ralph (Uri) Lipsitz.

Cherished Sister-in-law of Bernard (Cathy) Schrott.

The Best Auntie to Adina Lipsitz, Michael (Melody) Lipsitz, Karen (Tal) Lipsitz Dai, Rowie (Inbar) Lipsitz, the late Beth Schrott, Dede (Jeff) Janower, David (Sarah) Preston Schrott.

Natalie had many great nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends that she was very close with and adored so much.

“ Every time I saw Natalie she was happy, smiling and so graciously kind. Her positive energy was uplifting and it was always fun to be around her. Claire and Jeff brought her to many gatherings and Natalie was always so happy to be out with everyone. They made her life so much brighter. May she rest in peace and be reunited with her loved ones in heaven. Sending sympathy to all of her family. Hoping the many great memories will lighten your hearts. With love always, Pam VanLoozen

“Natalie was a special presence in my life. I loved going to lunch with her (and all the “fake” aunts). Meeting for coffee at Dunkin Donuts was always a treat. Discussing books was always interesting. Natalie was the neatest person I ever met with everything always being immaculate. Growing up with Natalie and Merel and all of the aunts and uncles and cousins was so special for so many of us—the days at Elizabeth Lake, the camping trips, all the Bar Mitzvahs and weddings— wonderful memories! And a special note to Claire—you were wonderful to Natalie and you really made her last years as good as they could be—thank you! I’ll always miss and love Natalie—
