“ One of my fondest memories was the day trip my husband, Gregg, and I took to Windsor with Neal, Maxine, and Zack. We spent the day laughing and sharing great food and wine. It was one of the best days ever.

Maxine and Zack, Gregg and I are so sorry for your loss. Neal was an amazing man and he will be truly missed.

“ *Maxine and Zack,
So very sorry for your loss. Such a wonderful man with a wonderful sense of humor. And Maxine, you know I had some things to say to him.....*

May his memory be for a blessing and know his suffering is over.

You were our fun next door neighbors when Zack was just a boy. My favorite memory of Neal was the day he romantically spray painted your front yard tree with the initials M & N encircled by a heart. Such a loving man!

Maxine and Zach, So very sorry to hear of Neal's passing. Neal was a wonderful guy, a good husband and father. You've had 35 good years together. Remember and cherish the memories and, may those memories sustain you both through this heartbreaking time and carry you through the future. Neal is at peace now, his suffering is over.

I remember a card Jason received at his Bar Mitzvah ... it was a Holy Communion card with a dollar inside ... unsigned. Later we found out that it was a humorous twist ... from Neal! (not Maxine or Zach, just Neal alone}
