“ I enjoyed going shopping with Neil and I enjoyed talking with him about our community. We liked going to the Franklin Cider Mill where we talked about our childhoods and growing up in the Church and Synagogue and how things change. We talked about what we could and could not afford and ways to save money. He was a nice friend who I will miss. Andrew Schuster

“ So long, Neil. You were always so fun to be around from the very day we met so many years ago. Then we became cousins. We became family. You were welcoming, kind, funny, and had a great big heart for those you loved. I am sad that the last time I saw you was at my children’s weddings. Not much we could do about that as COVID arrived just a few weeks later. I will miss your jokes, your colorful stories, your genuine laugh, and your kindness. I will miss YOU. Rest easy, Neil. Your life was not always easy and I hope you are at peace. I hope you are with your mom and dad. I know how you struggled after losing your mom. Until we meet again.....
