“ I was so saddened to hear of Noam's death. I'm not sure if I ever met him but years ago I had been very good friends with Naomi of blessed memory and Bobby.. I had lost contact with them for some years and then found them again not long before Naomi, Noam's twin, had been nifttered. I'm so thankful that I had regained a cherished friendship with Naomi before she died and Bobby and I are still in touch and he was kind enough to notify me of Noam's passing. The only other sibling that I had gotten to know a little was Rena and her family years ago and visiting them in their caravan in the Shomron with my then husband and my little boy who is a bit older than Jeremy.

To his wife, children, grandchildren and siblings my wish for you is that you be comforted with all the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem and know no more sorrow.
