Norman Dines, 78, passed away on Tuesday, May 21, at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak. He was born August 2, 1940, in Detroit to the late Sidney "Sol" Dines and Esther Strauss Dines. Norman is survived by his wife of 48 years, Rita Grossman Dines; son, Shawn Dines; daughter, Lisa (David) Smith; brother, Harry (Esther) Dines; grandchildren, Leo, Jillian and Abraham Smith; and his nieces and nephews.

Norman graduated from Cass Tech High School and Eastern Michigan University. He married Rita Grossman in 1970 and raised his family in Oak Park. Norman had a home construction company in the 1960's and built several homes in Detroit. He worked for the Office of Housing and Urban Development then held several jobs before taking a position as United States Postal Carrier in Oak Park. He retired from the Labor Relations Department at the USPS in 1986. Norman bravely battled multiple sclerosis for more than 40 years and lived his final years at the Manor of Novi. He was an avid sports fan and kept abreast of politics, the state of our country, and the state of Israel.
