“ I met Mr fox at his last place of residence I worked in the kitchens. He became a good dear friend always giving me a big excited smile and a "hey ! How's my buddy! I missed you!. " As he took hold of my hand and asked me loads of questions. I'm going to miss his dear sweet smile and his hey there my buddy. He always cracked me up when I had a hard day at work. We be teasing each other . I will miss you . My buddy Paulie thank you for being a wonderful friend. May you soar with the angels.

To Mr Fox's family and friends my heart weeps with you you have my condolences and heart felt sympathy on the loss of dear Mr Fox he was a wonderful man and friend

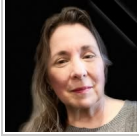

Many heartfelt condolences and prayers from , Jennifer (Jennie) Lynn Wentura kitchen worker at fleashmann building.

“ *Dear Michelle,
I only knew your Dad through his attendance at our support groups. He always talked about comforting the servicemen who confided in him about their struggles; and he made it a point to say how much he supported you. Then...God bless him...he would fall peacefully to sleep. What an endearing man! He will be missed by so many.
Love and hugs,
Your friend,
Rosie*
