“ My friend Phyllis was a gift. She loved unconditionally and accepted her lot in life with grace, and thanksgiving--always focusing on the positive. My nickname for her was "Sunshine", because that's what I was reminded of when I saw or heard her. Her smile lit up a room; she was warm like sunshine; she spread light like sunshine, and the world was benefitted by having her in it.

I miss her so much. I'll never think of broccoli cheddar soup without thinking of her. When I see a bouquet of flowers, I am reminded of her love for fresh flowers. She enjoyed the simple pleasures of life, amongst the most enjoyable was just hanging out with her friends.

By God's grace, she was a tower of strength and love, a mannequin of faith who showed me how to live. She will be forever in my heart.

“ My friend Phyllis was more like a sister to me. She was also my role model, as she went through many tough times but remained positive through the worst of them, and NEVER complained. Her faith was stronger than anyone I know, and she made it her goal to uplift people whenever possible.

I miss her terribly and am grateful to be able to say a few words about her here.
