“ I was saddened to hear about the passing of my dear Rebbe, Rabbi Jerry Godfrey. I had him as my Rebbe in Yeshiva Chachmei Lublin over 60 years ago [in the Dexter area of] Detroit. Though its rare to remember a teacher of "long ago' Rabbi Godfrey or "Jerry' as we called him was a very warm and inspirational Rebbe. It was the first time I had learned Gemorrah and he made the words of the Gemorrah come alive with his concise pshat and wonderful stories.He was one of the best Rebbes I ever had and I always remembered him fondly. May he be a Meilitz Yosher, "A Gitte Beter" for his family and Klal Yisroel. Rabbi Ner Bresler [Brooklyn, New York].
