“ I was fortunate to spend some great time with Rachel on my trip to Albuquerque in September 2025. I'm so devastated and will miss her infectious optimism and laughter a lot.

“ Rachel and I shared so many great times together throughout middle school and high school. From sharing the stage to our deep, heated discussions in Mrs Maples classroom and even years later over the phone and on Facebook. We had a lot of good conversations and great memories together. I will never forget the amazing letter Rachel wrote about me when I needed some of my closest friends to write letters about who I was and why they liked me. I never realized anyone cared about me that much until I saw it in writing. Rachel was always there and always had a kind word to say at just the right time. Even at thousands of miles away, she still found time to check in and make sure I was okay. She was such a beautiful soul and a true friend and she will be missed forever and always. 💕💕

“ I remember living in Oak Park and hanging out with Rachel. We were always singing together and our favorite was Whitney Houston’s “Greatest Love of All.” We would sing it for hours on end, until we had memorized every word. I spoke with Rachel just last year (after many years) we reconnected and she even analyzed one of my dreams. She spoke so lovingly about her kids and was so hopeful for the new things she had going on. I am glad we were able to chat and wish we had done it more often. I hope her memories are a blessing to her whole family 💕💕

“ Cindy and Michael, I am terribly sorry for the loss of Rachel. I don't have a lot of memories from when I was a kid, but I'll always remember Rachel. I looked up to her like an older sister. I'm a year younger than Michael and my sister and Rachel were childhood friends. We lived parallel lives in a way because both of our families lived in Oak Park and both of our moms practiced audiology. I remember hearing her play Cat Stevens songs on guitar and being so in awe of her skill. Effortless! Probably a musical prodigy. I remember the house on Wales.. Ms. Ann... and Max?? Was there a dog named Max? Also, I don't remember the circumstances, but I gave her a ride to an appointment when I was 19. I was listening to an Ani DiFranco CD in the car and Rachel started singing the lyrics. It made my heart smile to know she was also a fan. My most recent memory of Rachel was 21 years ago ... but it still lives with me today. That's the kind of impact her presence had. She was magical. With Love, Miriam Marlow (Finn)

“ Dear Jason,
I'm so sorry for your loss. My sincere condolences to you and your family. May her memory be for a blessing, and may Hashem comfort all of you among the mourners of Tziyon and Yerushalayim.

“ Rachel loved perfume. I think most perfumes stink, but she was determined to find one that I liked. She actually succeeded and I am hoarding it. She had a well developed sense of smell from her perfuming experiences and could identify the most subtle scents. I still think most stink, but I respected her skills.

“ There are no real words to describe how heartbroken I am. Rachel had a personality and energy that I will never find again in another living soul. I love you and will desperately miss you till the day I die.

“ I remember meeting Rachel at a celebration party before her wedding to Jason. She was very upbeat, intelligent, and had an excellent singing voice. I saw a snippet of her singing while playing the piano on Facebook. She was an extrovert with an engaging personality. She will be sorely missed by all those whose lives she touched.

“ My first and one of my favorite memories about Rachel was when she was about 2 years old. We were in the car, and I was punching the radio buttons to find a song I liked and after hearing a mere blip of a song, she said "wait! I like that one!" I'm thinking there was no way she knew what song it was, but she did! I knew she was gifted musically at that moment. So talented. She was an amazing musician.
