

RAYMOND A. MEOLA

January 15, 2014

Age 89, of Chesterfield, died January 14, 2014.

A commercial artist in advertising, Mr. Meola was a navy veteran and marksman of World War II. A Commanders Club member and life member of Disabled Veterans Association, in his younger years, was a Golden Glove Boxer and the Heavy Weight Champion in New York at the age of 17. He trained under Jake Lamotta. He went to Pratt Art School and was an artist, music lover and a great pool player. A member of Congregation Beth Tephilath Moses, he was generous to a fault, respected religion and tradition and even at the time of his death, his concern was for his family, not for himself.

A GRAVESIDE SERVICE will be held at Congregation Beth Tephilath Moses Cemetery.

Family Info:

Beloved husband for over 62 years to Beverly Meola.

Devoted father of Bob (Sue Sheftel) Meola, Michele (Neil Sarles) Meola and Debra (Peter) Walworth.

Loving grandfather of Sofia Meola, Aaron Meola, Daniel Sarles, Samuel Sarles, Jennifer Walworth, Valerie (Tyler) Dawson.

Cherished brother of Bartholomew (Ruth) Meola and the late Nicholas Meola.