“ Filled with passion and boundless energy she was an inspiration to all those around her. When she spoke to me and my children she listened attentively and remembered and celebrated each child's uniqueness. I met her for the first time in 1970. It was one of the most engaging and 'pun' Shabbes meals ever, She always made her guests feel important and was a glowing example of an eshes chayil. I trust that her midos have inspired many to follow her example. Ari Kresch
