“ My wife and I got to know Richard when we went out with him and Lisa to the Franklin Grill. It was a memorable evening, and we were so happy to meet him after having heard about him from Lisa for many years. We all enjoyed ourselves so much that we stayed long past the normal dinner hour, talking and having a wonderful time. Richard's wonderful baritone voice was telling story after story, making us all laugh. We all agreed to meet up again, which we did at the same location, and then yet again at another. We will remember those times and wish we could have more. -Kurt Godden

Richard was a great friend, that welcomed me into his Starbucks Friday afternoon coffee group many years ago. Always made me feel welcome and alway was interested and caring about the people in his orbit. Wish I could of told him how much I cherished our friendship, RIP

I met Richard at Starbucks ,where he unofficially served as “mayor” of the Maple & Telegraph store. Richard was always entertaining to talk to, wise, introspective, and wickedly funny. I'll miss him. Condolences to Richard's family & friends.
