“ My mom and I looked forward to and so enjoyed our mother/daughter luncheons with Rita and Shellie at Hudson's for their famous Maurice salads, warm red and salty pistachios (which dyed my fingertips red for days), and a little bit of shopping. Love to relive those days!

“ My mother, Marian Wolfson, loved Rita like a sister. Growing up my mom said she spent more time at Rita's house than her own. Rita was a dog lover and had a doggie door in her den. One time she came home and her dog found a playmate, in her house another little dog running around. She loved to play bridge and played with Omar Sharif when he was in town. Also, Rita had a good sense of humor and told the story about a housekeeper who left the note Ben Dreck called. Rita said she knew no Ben Drecks. Then realized it was Mrs. Benedict!
