“ I am saddened to hear of Bob's passing, I met him when I worked for Sterling Group 1995-98;you instantly loved him and he always had a warm greeting for you! If he could help you getting work or a project he would have going with Brian,he was welcoming.It was always: Al-sky how are you doing baby! Thank you Bob for being such a nice human being and thanks Gary for giving me a start at Sterling Group.

“ I was searching for Bob Torgow’s email to let him know my mother passed away and was shocked to hear of his passing a year and a half ago. We were in touch by email now and again since his last visit to Israel and I always loved spending time with him. Bob and Bonnie Torgow z”l have a special place in my heart and were special friends to my parents z”l. Their children, Gary and Julie, were also in our house a lot in their yeshiva and seminary years in Israel and were responsible for the wonderful friendship that formed between both of our parents in their year in Israel and their followed up visits . I will always remember Bob’s wonderful sense of humor and his big smile as I will Bonnie’s kind heart and warm personality.

“ Bob was one of the first to welcome us snowbirds to Boynton Beach almost ten years ago. His elegance and humor shined throughout. It was a pleasure to be in his company. We will certainly miss him!

I already knew Bob from my time visiting Detroit, so when we purchased a house there, I was thrilled to learn that he had also had a place in Boynton Beach and we would always look forward to seeing him in shul and having him over on Yom Tov, or going out for ice cream with him. He was both funny and gracious and we will miss him. On April 14th, I welcomed my new grandson and at his bris on April 21st, he received the name Yonah Baruch. I don't know if it was coincidence or the hand of Hashem, but we will always think of Bob when we are with our grandson.

“ Bob was my friend. His children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were his major source of pride and delight. Generous to a fault (that phrase is particularly applicable to him) and such a love of life! I owe him a great deal and will miss him terribly. Steve Lockhart
