“ My most vivid memory of Robert...being the annoying little girl cousin, trying to hang out with my brothers and the Zucker boys. Robert was the closest in age, and always sweet to me. He gave me my first and only baseball card, Mike Schmidt. (Probably just to get me to leave them alone!) My heart breaks for my Aunt Mitzie, Kevin, Terry & Eric....at least he can be with my dad & Uncle Morrie, go out to coffee and have a laugh or two.....HUGS!!!

“ I've known him since diapers and loved him and the entire family all my life. May his memory be a blessing to us all.

“ I met Rob when he began attending our congregation late last year. We hit it off immediately and soon became friends. He was one of the kindest people I have ever known. In our time together, Rob showed me that having an open mind, a tender heart and a willing spirit are what matter most in life. He exhibited all of these qualities and then some. I was very happy to see the enthusiasm and hope that existed in his soul. He was on the path to find out what God wanted him to do with the rest of his life and he was excited about what that looked like. I was shocked and torn apart when I learned of his tragic health event. I visited him in the hospital at least twice per week since he became ill. Some days were good and some were not. Through it all, I feel like Rob gave it his very best and I am so thankful for the time we were able to have. I know that his mother, Mitzi, his brothers, nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family and friends are devastated by this occurrence. We share your grief and sorrow. I don't know why things happen the way they do. I don't claim to understand the mind of God. I just believe that God loved Robert and that by God's grace, Robert can now rest easy and we will see him again one day. Thank you Rob for the encouragement that you gave me. You were a good friend and I'll miss you. Take it easy up there, you have forever to enjoy your new life!

“ From the first time we met, I was impressed by Rob's friendliness. When he had his kidney issues, it didn't take second thought to offer him our guest room. Having him as a housemate was a blast. The stories that boy could tell. And I don't think anybody knew more about baseball. Baseball and bagels, either one, he could go on for hours. We'd take turns aggravating the third housemate. we'd crack up for hours. And his momma raised him right, not a single time did he forget to say 'thank you' at least 3 times. He always said he felt like he was burden to us, and I always said 'not in the least, you're family, it's what we do'. While not related by blood, we were blessed to have him as part of the family.

Some of my favorite memories hanging out in the Zucker family room was playing the game "rebound" which was under the couch, the game kinda like shuffleboard with little ball bearings in plastic circles, Robert beat me every game He was a good soul and he will be missed
