“ I was the girls' kindergarten teacher in Akiva. They were all precious and loved to learn. Their attitude and behavior reflected the wonderful upbringing they had at home. Ron was so proud of his daughters and the knowledge they brought home from school. I remember him as a caring and concerned father. May his memory be a blessing to his family and friends.

“ May Hashem comfort Ronnie and the entire family. I knew Ron Berman since 1984. He was an outstanding individual who loved his family, the Jewish Community and Israel. A prolific collector of sfarim, his faith was fully pure. We walked together to shul and worked on some projects together. He was honest and genuine.

The last few years have been difficult but due to the loving care of Ronnie, he was able to live comfortably at home. Nobody, loved being Jewish more than Ron. He loved Judaica, especially Hebrew books. He loved to learn and he loved to be quizzed on halachic issues.
