A LINK WILL BE PROVIDED FOR A WEBCAST OF THE FUNERAL SERVICE.

Age 60, of Troy, died May 18, 2017

Ronald loved music, singing, the show Jeopardy and he was a real comedian. He met his wife by leaving messages on her answering service with funny voices and he could imitate any looney tunes character.

Affiliated with Partners In Torah, his desire was to go back to school and become a Rabbi.

A long time member of Congregation Beth Shalom, he cooked meals for their events, including for the kids at Hebrew School, the homeless events at the synagogue and also donated truckloads of food stuffs to the Judson Center, and children's band concerts.

Ronald co-owned one of the first bar/restaurants that had karaoke. He also owned a vending route.

Beloved husband for 24 years to Brenda Efros.

Devoted father of Morgen Efros and Rachael Efros.

Loving son of Margot Efros and the late Leonard Efros.

Dear brother of Martin (Freda) Efros and Norman Efros.

He is also survived by a ton of in-laws, nieces, nephews, other relatives and a world of friends.

“ Dear Brenda,
I am filled with sorrow for the loss of my "cousin" Ron and want to express my sympathy to you, Morgen, Rachael, Margo and the rest of the Efros family.

Our two families have been intertwined since the Efros and Allweiss siblings were born, thanks to the close friendship of Margo and the late Lenny with my late parents, Irma and Zygie.

I was at your wedding to Ron, Brenda, and it's tragic that he was taken so early! Ron was a mensch, an upstanding family man and son. I always enjoyed talking and catching up with him. He had a good sense of humor and was a patient listener too. It's just feeling unbelievable to me that he's gone! I will be with you and your family in the coming days of mourning. With love -- Esther Allweiss Ingber
