My sincere condolences to Margo, his sisters, and my dear friend, Julie. Ron was a good man. I met him in the mid-80s when we both worked at AMC.

Terribly saddened to learn of Ron's passing. We met on our first day of law school in 1970, and remained friends all these years. We would get together occasionally, usually with our classmate, Mark Shoup. RIP, buddy; I was lucky to know you.

“ I was not able to attend services in person, but I attended online. I send my most personal regards to the Weitzman family and to my new friend, Judy Shubow. May Ronald rest in peace and may the whole family come together to celebrate and remember his life. Ronald may not be here, but he will never be gone. He will be in your hearts, always.

Before the pandemic I worked at Frank Murphy and would see Ron often in the various courtrooms. He always went out of his way to say hello and he was delightful to talk with. I am so very sorry for your loss.
