Age 92, A Holocaust Survivor, of West Bloomfield, died July 8, 2021.

Rose passed away surrounded by her loving children and grandchildren. She leaves many legacies, but her greatest accomplishment is the incredible family she built and life lessons she instilled in all of them. In addition to her 3 children and son-in-law, Rose had 8 grandchildren who adored her, and 17 great-grandchildren that were the lights of her life. She had a very special and unique relationship with each and every one. Rose also had 2 great-great grandchildren who she loved very much. Rose was happiest when she was surrounded by all of the kids. In addition to her family legacy, Rose also recorded and published a diary, "Remember Never to Forget," about her experience in the Holocaust. She is a survivor, and made her family promise to never forget about the Holocaust, and to make sure that her story was told and remembered by each generation to come. The family invites you to contact them if you would like to read her story.

“ Mrs. Bohm,

I am so honored and grateful to have gotten to meet you many years back. Michelle is one of my greatest friends and favorite people, so sharing a martini and dinner with her and our mothers was an incredibly special occasion. I'll cherish the memory always. Rest in true peace.

“ To a beautiful, selfless, brave, strong and resilient woman. You filled so many lives with unconditional love and memories we will all take with us forever. You always made sure to ask us if we were hungry and wanted to eat, even if we just ate 20 minutes ago, lol. You always spoke your mind when you had something to say. We will remember never to forget. This is not a goodbye but a see you later. Love you always. Your granddaughter Courtney
