“ We would like to share our fond memories of Roselie and George over so many years. I first met Roselie at their Harvard Row store, with our four infant boys pressing their noses against the store window. She invited us in and made a fuss over the children. George assisted me to find a watch for my husband.

So began a friendship and the establishing of a reliable source for all of our future jewelry purchases. Our son's purchasing their engagement rings from them also.

George suffered immeasurably in his childhood. But he always told us that he was most fortunate of men to have met Roselie and that unbelievably she had agreed to marry him.

Our sympathies to the family.

Sincerely

Pat and Jim Long

“ I'll always treasure the love and support Rosie showed me over the years. She used to call me "Dollie" when I talked to her on the phone. Like so many others, I'll miss her.

“ When my Jewish family came to Detroit from Canada, your parents had their jewelry shop on Livernois. We followed them to Southfield, and also to Troy. They were a wonderful couple. Later my husband and I belonged to Temple Emanu-El in Oak Park. So Frank got to enjoy your parents for awhile, as well. Your late dad used to tell me about some of his experiences during The Holocaust. I cried as I listened to him. Please know that our hearts and thoughts are with you and your family. What a beautiful photo this is of your dear mom.

Very fondly,
