I never saw Rosie Baum A'H without a smile on her face. She was truly an Ayshes Chayil and a mensch. It was a pleasure to know her. She graced our San Diego community with her presence. My sincerest condolences to all of you. Hamakom yenchem eschem bsoch sha'ar aveilei Tzion v'Yerushalayim.

“ So very sad to hear of the passing of your dear wife, mother and grandmother z"l. I will always remember sitting with her many times at my mother's z"l kitchen table when she'd come to visit on shabbos afternoons. She had humour style and grace. We always enjoyed her company. May her Neshama have the highest of Aliyahs. Wishing you all strength in the days ahead.
