“ To the Gold Family:

Matthew and I send our condolences and thoughts. She was such a special woman - she was also so warm and welcoming, and I very much appreciate how included she always made me feel when I visited with her and the Gold cousins. She will very much be missed, but will always have a special place in our hearts.

*Love,
Jennifer (Yellin) and Matthew (Denomme)*

“ We are so sorry we did not know about your loss. Your Mom & grandmother was a friend of our Mom’s (Carmen Friedman) who also previously lived at Trowbridge. Your mom and ours played cards, bingo, and shared many good times together. I have talked & visited your mom several times since losing my mom.....and the talks were so nice! Your mom is now your special angel! I like to think she and our mom will be reacquainted & enjoy time together once again. Please know we heard how proud she was of all of you and appreciated all of you!

“ So sorry to hear. Robin and I just saw her on Sunday. She of course had to get her hair done before she could receive us. Her wit was sharp as ever and I even got some of her hard candy!

It was a sweet and special visit. She was so sharp - filled with wit and warmth. Ever the joker - she apologized for not baking for us. As usual, she told jokes and exuded a fun sense of humor! So happy to have had a great visit.
