“Ruth will always hold a special place in my heart! I loved her sense of humor, her love for the New York Times, and her impressive crossword puzzle-solving skills. Most of all, I will always remember the twinkle in her eye. She was a truly special soul, and I am so grateful for the opportunities I had to spend some time with such a wise, kind, intelligent, spunky, sweet lady.

“Several of the caregivers provided favorite memories, your mom certainly touched all of us.

“My personal favorite. A lady walking down the street with screaming kids. A man says lady your kids are spoiled. She responds, they always smell like that. Haha. Ruth said it better though! So many great memories the last year and a half! She also taught me things about New York that I never knew. I also love the hat pin on the subway story. You git em Ruth!” – Joli

“I loved her heart for children. She loved to go to the beach and watch the little children play. And her jokes. She once got frustrated with me trying to get her to do something. She told me “ Oh go read a book!” I thanked her because that's not the worse thing someone told me to do. She laughed. She told me she wasn't afraid of death but more curious of what's next. I believe in next. So I'll see ya Ruth!” – Lori

“There are so many great one liners and memories. Two favorites: absolutely loved the “Is that and island (“Staten Island”) joke, do you know how Staten Island got its name? When Christopher Columbus sailed into the Hudson river and pointed at a small strip of land, he said, “Is that an island? And forever was the area named “Staten Island?” Another favorite, recently I received a call from one our caregivers and the caregiver shared that Ruth was having a rough night and was agitated because it was close to 6pm and there was a live band playing next door at the restaurant. It was a tense situation and Ruth wanted to vacate her home because it was too late for music. I asked to speak with Ruth and reassured her that the band should be done soon and in enough time for her to get to bed in peace. Changed gears and then asked Ruth if the music was any good? Ruth responded, “no, not really.” I said oh gosh, well, I'll bring over some tomatoes and we can throw them at the band?” Ruth immediately laughed, her sweet, contagious laugh and said, ok, you earned your keep.” And we go through the night. Love you Ruth!” – Lydia

*I had such a wonderful time with Ruth for the past year and a half, her jokes were great, " how do you keep a dog from going mad in August? Shoot him in July" lol and next year being 2020, everyone will have perfect sight. Soo many memories with her.
Her curiosity of what comes next, we had lots of talks about that.
I hope she has endless klondike bars.
I will miss you greatly Ruth, you were such a caring soul. I will miss your hugs and kisses and the way you always worried in bad weather and asked me to call you when i made it home safely at night, (though I never did.) i learned soo much from you. Love you Ruth- April*
